Driving Directions

Exit the M60 at junction 24.

Follow signs for the A57 to Denton. You will also see M57 signs but make sure you follow the A57.

Continue forwards at the first traffic lights (there is a flyover and bridge to the right of you).

Get in the right hand lane and turn right at the next lights (signed A57 town centre).

Immediately after turning right, get in the left lane to arrive at another set of lights after 100m.

Go straight on at these lights. The road soon bends a little to the right. Pass Windmill Lane Trading Estate on the right.

You will shortly see blue railings on the right hand side. The entrance to Tameside Business Park is just beyond the railings on the right hand side.

Once you have entered Tameside Business Park, turn first right. The entrance to The Forum is immediately on your right. There is a car park a little further along on the right.

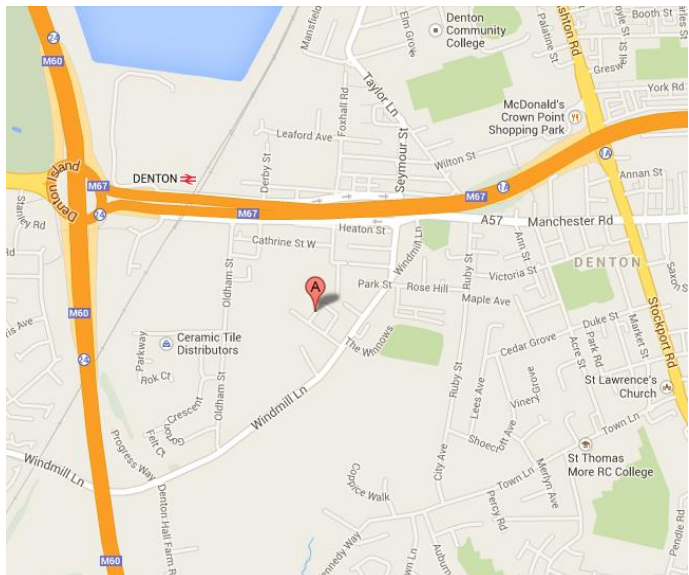

We are in office 18. When you get to The Forum entrance, press buttons 1 then 8, followed by the bell button. We'll then speak with you and let you in.

Once in the building, turn left up the stairs.

We are the first office on the left.

Welcome!
